

Eligible for
IEEE
PDH
Credit

Leveraging 85 Years of Structural Expertise to Educate the Next Generation of Utility Personnel

STEEL TECHNICAL SEMINAR

Join fellow utility professionals as industry subject matter experts provide two full days of instruction, including an overview of program development, use of analytics and best practices for steel structure assessment, corrosion mitigation, and structural restoration of both steel and concrete.

October 24-26, 2022 | Peachtree City, GA

Course Outline

- Using Analytics in Structure Asset Management
- Groundline Assessment
- Structure Assessment Incorporating: Drones, UASs, and LiDAR
- Engineering Analysis of Steel Structures
- Corrosion Prevention
- Asset Restorations and Resiliency
- Cost Analysis: Steel Asset Retention (Stewardship) vs. Loss/Replacement
- Program Capitalization
- Live Outdoor Demonstrations

Complimentary for Osmose customers

Includes:

- 10 hours of instruction eligible for PDH credit
- Welcome dinner reception
- Off-site social event
- Breakfast and lunch during seminar
- Transportation from the host hotel to the Osmose campus

Who Should Attend?

- Utility T&D Engineers
- Program Managers
- Asset Managers
- Operations Supervisors
- Anyone responsible for ensuring the longevity of steel transmission, distribution, and substation structures

LIMITED SPACE AVAILABLE

Register online at osmose.com/steeledu

Attendance is limited to asset owners and first-time attendees.